Letterboxing 101 (for kids, teens and families)

Wednesday, February 21 from 6:00 - 7:30 pm

Want a fun way to spend an hour or two that costs you nothing? Or maybe you'd like to take a Sunday drive and explore new areas. Perhaps you feel like a hike, or a treasure hunt is more your style. Try letterboxing! Similar to geocaching but with a bit of an art component, it's fun, free, enjoyed by thousands all over the world, and for anyone of any age. This hands-on workshop will include all the basics including simple rubber stamp carving and finding your first letterboxes right here in the library.

Registration limit: 15, please call (717) 243-4642 ext. 2231 to register.

Capture the Flag – Snowball Style!

Do you have what it takes to steal the other team's flag before getting hit with a snowball? Join us for this fun and exciting game of Capture the Flag with plush snowballs! Participants will be split into two teams and will have to capture the opposite teams flag, the team that captures the flag the most before the time runs out wins!

Registration is required for this special after-hours program.

Flags of the Nations (for grades K - 3)

Friday, February 9 from 4:00 - 5:30 pm

This special art program focuses on the Pyeongchang Winter Olympics 2018 in South Korea. Students in grades K-3 will be choosing the flag of a participating country of their choice to paint on paper. These flags will hang from the ceiling in the back entrance to the Library until after the Olympics, at which time students may take them home.

Registration limit: 15

Marble Mazes (for grades 4 - 6)

Saturday, February 10 from 2:00 - 3:00 pm

After you watch the bobsled, luge, and skeleton teams zoom down the ice tracks in Pyeongchang, are you ready to fly down the chutes here in Carlisle? No, not ice chutes, but chutes you create yourself --- for marbles. Spend an hour being an architect, creating a fast, fun track for your marbles to fly down (and stay on!) while learning about gravity, friction, and speed.

Registration limit: 12

Preschool Storytime: Winter Olympics Special Edition (for ages 3 - 6)

Tuesday, February 13 from 10:00 - 11:00 am

Sunday, February 18 from 1:30 - 2:30 pm

Come join us for a special Libralympiad Preschool Storytime on South Korea. All of our books and activities are based on South Korean traditions or are inspired by the culture. It is never too early to invite cultural awareness into a child's life!

Registration limit 15 per class, register for one session only.

Travel with Me to the land of the Olympic Games: South Korea (for grades 2 - 4)

Thursday, February 15 from 6:00 - 7:00 pm

Join us as we explore the culture of South Korea, host country for this year's Winter Olympic games. With books and activities based on South Korean traditions or inspired by the culture, participants will explore the language, food, crafts, music and more of South Korea.

Olympic Architects! (for ages 13 - 17)

Monday, February 19 from 6:00 - 7:00 pm

We're challenging teens to become Olympic course designers! Using a variety of building materials, from Legos to food to recyclables, we want to see your best design for an Olympic bobsled track. We'll provide the building materials, you bring your best ideas! This is a team event in our Libralympiad, so participants must register in teams of two or three.

Registration limit: 6 teams

Unless otherwise indicated, please call (717) 243-4642 ext. 2231 to register for programs.
