From Our Director, Jody Cole

Happy New Year, everyone! We hope you’re looking forward to 2019 as much as we are. We have a great team here to serve you, and we have the latest books, audiobooks, and DVDs for you to check out. Come to participate in our library programs. Learn about different countries in our revitalized Passport to the World. Play I Spy and win a Book Nook gift certificate. Try your hand with poetry in our new poetry group. And join us for a program on Chinese medicine and acupuncture. These are just a few of the happenings at the library this month. All of our regular programs are running, too. Stop in to say hello, and thank you one and all for your support of our community library.

Passport to Morocco

Those attending our children’s Passport program in December enjoyed learning about Morocco which is located in North-West Africa. The children talked about the desert animals native to the country and snacked on a traditional snack of cinnamon & sugared oranges. They made mosaic lamps and took home information with interesting facts about Morocco.

J.R.R. Tolkien (January 3, 1892)
Tolkien, a member of the British Army in WWI and later a professor at Oxford, was the author of The Hobbit and Lord of the Rings trilogy. He created a fantasy world inhabited by elves and hobbits. These stories were inspired by earlier European myths and continue to be popular, having sold tens of millions. The series has been made in to several feature length films.

Charles Perrault (January 12, 1682)
This French author began the literary genre, the fairy tale, which were adapted from pre-existing folk tales. Among his writings are such classics as "Little Red Riding Hood", "Sleeping Beauty", and "Cinderella". These stories have been adapted in other forms including opera, ballet, and film.

Jack London (January 12, 1876)
Jack London was a 19th century American author and journalist, born in San Francisco, California to a working class family. When he could, he spent his free time at libraries, immersed in travel books and novels. After working in the Klondike as an adult, he returned home and began publishing his stories. Known for his novels The Call of the Wild, White Fang and Martin Eden, London was among the most popular American authors of his time.

A.A. Milne (January 18, 1882)
English writer A.A. Milne is best known for his children's stories about the adventures of Winnie-the-Pooh. Milne began a successful career as a novelist, poet and playwright in the 1920s. His best known works are his two collections of children's poetry, When We Were Young and Now We Are Six, and his two books of stories about the lovable bear Winnie-the-Pooh.

Mary Mapes-Dodge (January 26, 1831)
A New Yorker, best known for a story set in the Netherlands, Hans Brinker and the Silver Skates, had never visited there before she wrote this inspirational story of a young boy with big dreams and a strong sense of honor. First published in 1865, this book has been in print continuously since then. Ms. Dodge was also the editor of St. Nicholas Magazine, a highly esteemed publication.
successful children's magazine in the second half of the nineteenth century.
