From Our Director, Jody Cole

I don't think you can beat Pennsylvania in a beauty contest during late May and early June. It's so green! And the trees and flowers accent the green with all of their colors. Our Youth Services staff and our teens created some flower beauty in planters they've placed at the entrances. We hope you enjoy them, too, when you come to visit us for our June programs.

Starting off the month, we have our Summer Learning Program: A Universe of Stories. Join us on Tuesday, June 4 at 6:00 p.m. for our Ice Cream Kickoff! We'll have programs, camps, and presenters during June and July, and we'll wrap everything up on July 30 with our Out of This World Summer Awards Party.

Traversing the universe of daily life, we turn to financial literacy and have H & R Block here on June 11 to help you see if you qualify for renter or property owner rebates. On June 17, we'll have a program on the fundamentals of Microsoft Office, and on June 24, we'll have a program on homeschooling.

Don't forget to sponsor a duck to race in our Duck Derby on June 8th as we celebrate all of the Shippensburg community's blooms at the 5th Annual Bloom Festival from 9-3 in the borough parking lot.

A Generous Gift

A very generous donation has been given to the Shippensburg Public Library in honor of the late Jeff Coy. The Library Board of Trustees learned at their monthly meeting in May that Coy's wife, Jo Anne, has committed a significant pledge that will be spread over five years, and meets requirements for a naming opportunity.
“Jo Anne’s purpose with this pledge is to honor her husband of 44 years, Jeff Coy, who passed away on June 4, 2018. The library will be renamed the Jeffrey W. Coy Public Library of Shippensburg thanks to the donation,” library staff and officials noted.

The Seven Keys to Enhancing Social Security Benefits

Randy Taylor presented information on Social Security and on changes in Social Security that have taken place over the years. He explained the accumulation of credits for Social Security, the difference between minimum retirement age and full retirement age, and choices people can make about obtaining benefits. He also provided information on Medicare and on how much money it takes to retire overall.

Chinese Medicine & Acupuncture

Michael Stilp, a NCCAOM-certified professional, spoke about Chinese Medicine and acupuncture and how they can be used to treat a variety of conditions. "Our bodies are always working for us. Sometimes they need some assistance," says Stilp.
