From Our Director, Jody Cole

We’re having a great summer here at the library. We’ve had so much fun with our programs, presenters, and camps, and the pictures in this newsletter tell the story. Thank you one and all for coming to the library to have fun with us and learn at the same time. Please thank the staff if you get a moment. They’re the ones who make it all happen! And please thank our sponsors who are listed in this newsletter. Special thanks to the Kiwanis who sponsor our annual pizza party. For all of our summer readers and learners, the Milky Way Mall will be open until August 9. We have great prizes waiting for you.

There’s still more to come, though. We have another month before Labor Day. We have our children’s programming and a few adult programs as well—Medicare changes, climate change, and a more lighthearted one on gardening. We’re excited to welcome our new Chief of Police Meredith Dominick, too, for a Meet and Greet on August 14.

Don’t forget we’re closed at the very end of the month for the Corn Festival, but our Book Nook will be open with a great sale. Come inside to buy one and get one free.

August will go by in the blink of an eye, so mark your calendars now for our Library Celebration Day coming up at the end of September! We’ll provide more details in our next newsletter.

Baby & Me
ages birth to 2 years
“For over 44 years, we were a team supporting each other's endeavors. Jeff was born here in Shippensburg, grew up in Shippensburg, attended college in Shippensburg and never left his hometown. From his early years to his final days, he played an active role in his community. He never forgot his roots,” Jo Anne said. Jo Anne served 14 years on the library's board, 11 of those years as board president. She also served as one of the co-chairs of the Capital Campaign which made the recent expansion a reality.

You’ll find something for everyone!
Monday, July 8th, eighteen members of the Shippensburg Lions Club visited the Library. Cindy Pimental, Library Board Trustee, led the club members and their guests on a historical tour of the building and shared many interesting facts about the building and the Stewart family. At the end of the tour Lions Club President Galen Burkholder presented Cindy with a certificate of appreciation (pictured below) and club member Phil Ritchie presented a check for $500 to the library.

Rotary International is an international service organization whose stated Wild and wonderful adventures were experienced at the library during Wild Animal camp. Participants made bug boxes and captured and released insects. They learned about mammals, birds and reptiles and even met a rabbit and guinea pig up close!

Farm Camp

Participants attending Farm Camp learned about farm animals and the different tasks that are involved in farming. (Learning what’s like to milk a cow by using a plastic glove.) They held their own farm Olympics and enjoyed snacks from fresh farm food.
