From Our Director, Jody Cole

We’re getting used to our new reality here at the library. We’ve been happy to see you, and hear you, and serve you. Thank you for coming in and for wearing masks to protect us. Although we’re only partially reopened, we are fully engaged with our community, just in a different way. We’re ordering and circulating books, although our ILL service is not available as of yet. And we’re running our summer reading programs and camps.

Join us July 13-20 for Cinderella and Her Fairy Godmother, a virtual performance. Gather your props!

Be a part of our summer camps for kids: Fairy Tale Factory, Superhero Basic Training, Colors Collide, and Magical Mother Nature. And for teens as well: Masks and Mayhem, and Escape the Enchanted Forest.

Our regular storytimes are back as well. Imagine Your Story along with us this summer!

Thank you for a Job Well Done!

Coy Public Library is pleased to announce that they now have 6 raised garden beds, thanks to Colin Krause! Colin, an Eagle Scout with Troop #120, chose to construct these garden beds for the library as his Eagle Scout project. Sarah Cormann, Assistant to Youth Services said, “We are eager to incorporate these raised garden beds into our future programs and provide opportunities for students to get their hands in the dirt! Stay tuned for updates!”

Colin shared this, “I am 16 years old. I have been in scouts since I was a Tiger Cub (6 years old). My journey through scouts has been a great experience. I’m excited to earn my Eagle Scout. I have learned many skills that I will use for the rest of my life. I’ve enjoyed making the planter boxes. It has helped increase my carpentry skills. I’m currently a student at Franklin County Career Center and in the Carpentry program. Thank you to the library for allowing me to do this project.”

Thank you all so much for your hard work!

Community Connection

Gov. Wolf Invites Pennsylvanians to Visit Libraries this Summer

Gov. Tom Wolf has recorded a special message inviting Pennsylvanians to connect with their local public library’s SummerQuest program. In it, he also reads a popular children’s book I Just Like You by Suzanne Bloom (Boyd’s Mills Press, 2018). Bloom’s book uses pencil and watercolor artwork of young animals to communicate a message of tolerance and acceptance.

To stream the Governor’s message, click HERE. For the High Quality Download link, click HERE.

The Office of Commonwealth Libraries would like to thank Gov. Wolf for recognizing the importance of public library summer learning programs as well as the effort that each Pennsylvania public library has put into making this year’s Imagine A Story-themed program possible, even during a pandemic. We would also like to thank York County Libraries for asking the Governor to create this video.

We thank you for your patronage and your patience.

Meet Lisa Seibert

Lisa Seibert is the new manager of the Book Nook. A member of the Friends of the Library, Lisa assumed her new role in January. Although Lisa typically works 12 to 20 hours each week, Covid 19 has caused a temporary decrease in the number of volunteers, so Lisa works almost every day.

Lisa traces her interest and involvement in the Book Nook back to her early love of books and her desire to be a librarian. She feels Books have the ability to be a portal. She finds that books allow the reader to travel to new places and see them through the eyes of various characters. Lisa’s reading preferences are wide ranging, from cookbooks to science fiction. She finds it rewarding to witness the excitement of Book Nook customers when they find a sought-after book.

As the reopening process continues Lisa reminds patrons that both volunteers and customers are asked to wear face masks in the Book Nook. Patrons should enter from the parking lot door and exit from the side door. Capacity is limited to 8 people. Donations are only accepted during Book Nook hours and are quarantined for three days. Come in to say hello to Lisa and the other volunteers.
