From Our Director, Jody Cole

Here we are at the beginning of August! One thing that is predictable in these uncertain times is that summer will fly by. We’ve been busy reading the summer away, so that has made things go even more quickly. Thanks to all of you summer readers who read your way to the satisfaction of completing good books and winning great prizes! Thanks to our Youth Services staff—Sami, Sarah, Brittany, Kasey, and Kes—for soldiering on virtually in this unprecedented time. And even more thanks to our local merchants who supported us! Please visit them and thank them, too.

Even though summer learning is coming to a close, we still have virtual camps for you to attend. See them listed below.

We’re still trying to determine what the fall will hold. We’re listening closely to the daily health news and will let you know as soon as we do. We’ll continue with our virtual programming for now.

Join us in person for two great sales at our Book Nook. Our Friends have been supporting us all along—and they’re keeping it going with their Sidewalk Sizzler Sale August 14 and 15 and their A-Maize-Ing Sale on August 29. See what great deals you can find and support the library at the same time!
All you have to do is text the word SIGNUP to (833) 569-0507.

Gov. Wolf Invites Pennsylvanians to Visit Libraries this Summer

Gov. Tom Wolf has recorded a special message inviting Pennsylvanians to connect with their local public library’s SummerQuest program. In it, he also reads a popular children’s book I Just Like You by Suzanne Bloom (Boyds Mills Press, 2018). Bloom’s book uses pencil and watercolor artwork of young animals to communicate a message of tolerance and acceptance.

The Office of Commonwealth Libraries would like to thank Gov. Wolf for recognizing the importance of public library summer learning programs as well as the effort that each Pennsylvania public library has put into making this year’s Imagine A Story-themed program possible, even during a pandemic. We would also like to thank York County Libraries for asking the Governor to create this video.
