Philanthropy is not just for the wealthy. People from all walks of life create meaningful legacies by making bequests. Including Bosler Memorial Library in your Will helps insure that high quality information and education continues for children, adults and seniors in our community.

Planned Giving Options

- Leaving a specific bequest of money or a particular item of property to the Library;
- Bequeathing a percentage of your estate or a percentage of the residue of your estate after making provisions for family and friends;
- If you have already created a Will, you can make changes by having your attorney execute an amendment.

Making a Bequest

The following language is an effective way to make a bequest to Bosler Library: "I, [your name], hereby give, devise and bequeath to the J. Herman Bosler Memorial Library, a non-profit corporation, organized and operating under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, [a percentage of the estate, a dollar amount, or a description of property] for its unrestricted use and purpose [or for a particular program of your choosing]."

Other Options to Consider

- Gifts of stock, real estate or other assets
- Naming the Library as a beneficiary of a life insurance policy, 401(k) plan or IRA
- Life Income Gifts
- Charitable Lead Trusts
- Gift Annuities

Outright Gifts

For those who are not ready to consider a Planned Giving program, "outright" gifts are an important way to support the Library. Such gifts typically are in the form of:
- Cash
- Stocks
- Publicly traded securities
- Life insurance policies.

Donations may be made directly or in memory or in honor of a specific individual. You will want to consult your financial adviser or attorney about the potential tax benefits of such gifts.
