

On Tuesday, April 25, students from the Carlisle Arts Learning Center (CALC) graciously presented this bookcase full of books and bookworm to Bosler's Executive Director, Jeff Swope, as a gift for National Library Workers Day, a part of National Library Week, in appreciation of the staff at Bosler. We are very grateful and honored!

A Thousand Years without a Bath - Illuminating the Real "Dark Ages"

Squalor, ignorance, and ruin – that's the common view of life in Europe between the fall of Rome and the Renaissance. But the real picture was very different. This program sheds some welcome light on the bright spots that emerged during this thousand-year stretch. Presented by history lecturer John Maietta.

Orrstown Bank Supports School-Age Programs

Children participating in a number of Bosler's programs for kids in grades K-6 are benefiting from a donation from Orrstown Bank again this year. Meet the Artists, Meet the Composer, American Girls Club, and Techno Tweens programs at Bosler are made possible with support from a $5,000 donation from Orrstown Bank through Pennsylvania's Educational Improvement Tax Credit (EITC) program.

Belinda Lawrence (far left) and Bob Russoli (far right) from Orrstown Bank presented the check to Bosler's Executive Director Jeff Swope and Youth Services Coordinator Denine Nealon on April 24.

Donor Event Highlights Outreach Programming

Bosler held its donor appreciation reception for members of the Bosler Society and Lila's Legacy Society on Thursday, May 11 at the home of Adam Messer and Diana Putman. Attendees enjoyed learning about Bosler's extensive outreach programs and services while sampling hors d'oeuvres by Layla's Catering and Event Planning and listening to live music by guitarist Paul Wegmann. One of the highlights of the evening was a dramatic reading of the children's book "Owl Babies" by Executive Director Jeff Swope, who has been leading storytime programs at multiple schools and childcares around the Bosler service area for the past several months.
