Library Card Sign-Up Month Reminds Students, Families That Libraries
Are The Key To Academic Success

Mechanicsburg, Pa. - This September, the Cumberland County Library System and all Cumberland County libraries are joining the American Library Association (ALA) and libraries nationwide for Library Card Sign-Up Month, a time to remind parents, caregivers, and students that a library card is the first step towards academic achievement and lifelong learning.

A library card opens a world of infinite possibilities through resources and services that give students the tools they need to succeed in school and beyond. From STEAM (science, technology, engineering, arts, and mathematics) programs, family storytimes, to makerspaces and in-person or virtual homework help, libraries transform lives through education.

Libraries offer free and fun educational resources and activities that bring families and communities together. You can find information about everything happening at libraries in Cumberland County by visiting www.cumberlandcountylibraries.org.

Libraries play an important role in the education and development of children. Studies show that children who are read to in the home and who use the library perform better in school and are more likely to continue to use the library as a source of lifetime learning.

“Our library programs serve students of all ages,” says Carolyn Blatchley, Library System executive director. “For younger children, we offer early literacy resources to help them learn to read and encourage school readiness. For teens and older students, we provide access to technology and digital tools as well as GED resources. We’re especially pleased to offer Tutor.com, which provides access to live tutors from noon to midnight each day, as well as GED practice and job search support for adults.”

Since 1987, Library Card Sign-up Month has been held each September to mark the beginning of the school year. During the month, the ALA and libraries unite in a national effort to ensure that all children sign up for their own library card. For more information about how to sign up for a library card, please visit www.cumberlandcountylibraries.org or visit any library location in person.
