Cumberland County Library System Foundation Receives EITC Donation from Riverview Bank for Summer Learning Program

Carlisle, Pa. – Riverview Bank recently donated $1,500 to the Cumberland County Library System Foundation for its 2019 Summer Learning Program. The Summer Learning Program extends the school year by providing fun, free activities designed to foster a love of reading as well as strengthen reading, writing, and learning skills. Nearly 7,000 children attended the Summer Learning Program in 2018.

The Cumberland County Library System Foundation is a federally tax-exempt not-for-profit organization, EIN 20-8077580, with a mission to support the Cumberland County Library System and its member library collections, program services, and innovative initiatives. The CCLS Foundation is also an approved Educational Improvement Organization (EIO) of the Commonwealth's Educational Improvement Tax Credit (EITC) program.

Cumberland County's public libraries lead their communities with educational, cultural, and entertainment programs, as well as authoritative and interesting materials. Students from nine Cumberland County school districts – Big Spring, Camp Hill, Carlisle Area, Cumberland Valley, East Pennsboro, Mechanicsburg, Shippensburg, South Middleton, and West Shore – as well as home-school and private school students benefit from the Summer Learning Program and other library programs and services.

The Cumberland County Library System consists of seven federated local libraries, one branch facility, a system headquarters office, and an associated non-profit Foundation. The Library System provides support to its member libraries through information technology, securing library materials, older adult services, training opportunities, and administrative, and financial services. More information on the Cumberland County Library System can be found at www.cumberlandcountylibraries.org.
