Mechanicsburg, Pa. – Colleen Moore, Director of Youth Services at the Jeffrey W. and Jo Anne R. Coy Public Library of Shippensburg, has been named Employee of the Month for March 2025 by the Cumberland County Library System Foundation.

Employee of the Month nominations are open to the public and celebrate outstanding customer service. Exemplary Library System employees are nominated by patrons, peers, and co-workers. Colleen was nominated by her co-worker Amy Culbertson, who wrote, "Colleen is an amazing library employee. Not only does she lead creative activities for youth, but she is an active part of book clubs as well and is a knowledgeable resource for reading material. She's the reason I have explored Middle grade and YA titles."

CCLS Executive Director Carolyn Blatchley chimed in, "Colleen grew up in the Coy Library, attending programs in the basement, so it is exciting to see her leading a greatly expanded and dynamic youth experience located in the new wing." Colleen loves talking about books and reading, and even has a personal YouTube channel. She engages kids with block parties, leads a Chapter Book Club at the library for 8-12 year olds, has a thriving weekly Teen Scene, and extends her love of ducks and Bluey in her early childhood programming."

Colleen joined the library in August 2023. She is a graduate of Southern Virginia University and earned her master's in Library Science at PennWest Clarion.
