Mechanicsburg, Pa. – Julie Barr, Circulation Assistant at Fredricksen Library in Camp Hill, has been named Employee of the Month for September 2024 by the Cumberland County Library System Foundation.

As of April 2024, Employee of the Month nominations have been open to the public and celebrate outstanding customer service. Exemplary Library System employees are nominated by patrons, peers, and co-workers. Julie was nominated by Library Director Jessica Miller, who wrote, "Julie has been working circulation with us for 12 years. She is a great person to have on staff. She is always able to direct patrons to whatever they are trying to find, and goes out of her way to make sure that they have everything they need, including taking them to the section they need if we are slow, or to the location where we keep our newsletter if they are looking for programs."

Julie's skills extend well beyond the circulation desk. Library director Jessica Miller continues, "Julie is an excellent marketer, making sure to tell all of our patrons what is happening at the library. She knows so much about how we operate and is always willing to help newer staff members by showing them how things work, and she is willing to help out wherever she can. We truly appreciate having Julie on staff!"
