

Cumberland County Library System Foundation Receives a $5,000 Grant from Truist Foundation

Mechanicsburg, PA - The Cumberland County Library System Foundation has received a $5,000 grant from Truist Foundation in support of its Tutor.com database.

Library System Executive Director Carolyn Blatchley comments, "We welcome Truist Foundation as a corporate partner and are extremely grateful for this significant contribution. Vital services like Tutor.com offer fairness and opportunity in education for cardholders of all ages."

One of many free databases provided by the Library System, Tutor.com gives patrons access to live online tutoring and resume help as well as thousands of academic and career resources. Students from K-12 through college can get help with homework, studying, projects, essay writing, and test prep in every subject, including algebra, statistics, chemistry, physics, social studies, and English. Adults can get help with job searches, GED prep, and academic support.

Live tutors are available on Tutor.com seven days a week between the hours of noon and midnight. Services on Tutor.com can be accessed 24 hours a day from any computer or mobile device (smartphone or tablet with Internet access).

About the Cumberland County Library System:

Cumberland County's public libraries lead their communities with educational, cultural, and entertainment programs, as well as authoritative and interesting materials. Students from Cumberland County's nine public school districts – Big Spring, Camp Hill, Carlisle Area, Cumberland Valley, East Pennsboro, Mechanicsburg, Shippensburg, South Middleton, and West Shore – as well as those attending private school or being home schooled benefit from Tutor.com, the Summer Learning Program, School-Year STEM, and many other library programs and services. The Cumberland County Library System is one of the busiest library systems in Pennsylvania, with more than 110,351 active library card holders visiting their libraries 1,171,574 times and year and circulating 2,273,924 items.
