Unwrap Your Gifts from Fredricksen!

Bonnie Goble, Library Director

It's that time again—time to be grateful, time to be excited about gifts meant just for you and time to be giving.

Bonnie Goble, Director

We are incredibly grateful for the non-stop stream of great activity this year...let's look back for half a second. We opened the toy train in Kiner's Korner at our East Pennsboro Branch to honor longtime volunteers and founders of the Branch. We held a Murder Mystery Dinner Theater fundraiser at the highest point on the West Shore! Foreign films continue and Library Loop 5K topped out at over 450 participants this year. We expanded eDevice classes to monthly, now staffed by three trained librarians. We hosted the Master Gardeners. We began Off the Shelf, a newsletter suggesting great books to read. Our children's department had attendance of over 14,000 at our programs...by July! Grateful.

How about unwrapping gifts meant especially for you? Mobile device classes continue, one a month, for whatever device is currently your target...register at Fredricksen or the Branch! Gingerbread houses for teens in December, followed by holiday week activity...hang out with us. Pirates and Princesses storytimes, Bingo, and the return of Parent-Child Workshops AND our award-winning Mission Transition. More for adults? How about the Beatles in February and Chess Tournaments? Book groups and crafts. Oscars offerings, even before the judges decide! Lots to unwrap this winter.

Time to be giving? Fredricksen continues as the busiest and most high-volume library in Cumberland County. Our pace is fast, our programs are daily, and none of it is free...except to you! If you have enjoyed something we offer, from books and DVDs to programs, perhaps you will consider a year-end gift back to Fredricksen. We promise we will turn it around, and use it to expand all of the good things we do. It's a never-ending story, in all the best ways!

Harp & Handbells Monday, Dec. 16 at 7 pm

Get into the holiday spirit with a relaxing evening of carols and holiday music.

Fawn Upright (harpist) and the First UMC Handbell Choir will delight your senses and transport you from the hustle and bustle of the holiday season with a variety of music to soothe and rest your soul. ### Wow! I Really Hated That Book

Sunday, February 23 at 1:30 pm
February is all about love, love and more love. Take a break from the mush and stop by to share your least favorite book. Take the mic for 5 minutes to give fair warning to your friends - here's the book to avoid! Could be a book you had to read for school, something you picked up because you liked the cover or a book recommended to you because your friend LOVED it! Snacks and drinks provided. No registration necessary. For teens 12 years and up, grades 7 - 12.
