Bonnie Goble, Director

More Hours in 2012!

Fredricksen Library and East Pennsboro Branch are pleased to announce more open hours in 2012...and you, the public, have made it possible.

Due to cutbacks in state funding, East Pennsboro Branch had eliminated all open hours on Wednesdays in 2010 and 2011. Community and business support for the library has made up for the former cutbacks. The Branch will now open 11 - 5 on Wednesdays.

In the past, Fredricksen closed Sundays in the summer. That's not the way businesses operate, and we are a business. We exist to serve our six communities: Camp Hill, East Pennsboro, Hampden, Lemoyne, Lower Allen and Wormleysburg. Sundays are Fredricksen's busiest days. We need to honor that need from our public.

Fredricksen will now be open Sundays year-round, from 1-5 pm. Fredricksen will be the ONLY library in Cumberland County to be open Sundays year round. Your donations and continuing monetary support for our events, our programs and our appeals have made this expansion possible.

We heard you, and we responded.

The Reference Department at Fredricksen Library is pleased to announce the arrival of "eBooksHub", a learning center focused on helping patrons navigate through the Capital Area Library District eBook download process. Every Friday from 1:00-3:00 pm, Reference Staff will offer a kiosk at the Fredricksen library entrance dedicated to helping patrons who have questions regarding Library System eBook downloads. We will also offer informal instruction at the "Hub" section of the Reference Desk. We will have a variety of devices on hand for the demonstration process: Kindle Touch, Nook Touch, Kindle Fire and an iPad (special thanks to Friends of Fredricksen for their generosity in purchasing some of these items for us!).

If you own an eReader, or similar device, please feel free to bring it with you on your quest for help—we will require that your device has been through the registration process, and ready for the eBook download process prior to your visit with the eBooksHub. We are able to demonstrate basic eBook downloads, and will have a variety of print and online resources to help guide you through the world of library eBooks. If you have questions regarding this program, please contact us at 761-3900 ext. 225. We look forward to seeing you at the "Hub"!

Why I Left the Amish

Tuesday, April 3 at 7 pm

Because of many myths and misconceptions that are perpetuated in mainstream American culture, the Amish remain one of the most misunderstood subcultures in America. Saloma Furlong, author of "Why I Left the Amish," invites you to the inside story of what it was like to be born and raised in the Amish culture. Her story demonstrates the resilience of the human spirit, for when she left her home at twenty years old, she chose a whole new life -- one in which she first learned to survive and eventually to thrive.

Ms. Furlong will be featured in a documentary about the Amish on PBS's American Experience on February 28. Come hear her story in person. No registration necessary.

Foreign Film Fridays: The Piano in a Factory

Friday, April 13 at 7 pm

FROM CHINA: When Chen's estranged wife reappears asking for a divorce and custody of their daughter, he is sure his daughter will choose to stay with him if he can just supply her a piano. When Chen's efforts to borrow money and even steal a piano fail, he's determined to make a piano from scratch. He persuades a bunch of misfit friends to help him forge the instrument in a derelict factory from a heap of scraps. Can they really succeed? Is it worth it? Not recommended for ages under 17 without parental permission. No registration necessary.

Heritage and Coal Mining Songs and Stories of Northeast Pennsylvania

Tuesday, April 17 at 7 pm

Saturday, May 19 at 2:00 pm

We continue to honor the 150th anniversary of the Civil War as we join Eliza Blackwell Dupree, a gentlewoman of the 19th century, who will regale you with many little-known facts about the time, famous women of the war, and will provide a peek under the gowns. A thoroughly civil time shall be had by all! No registration necessary.

The Story of

Major-General John White Geary

Sunday, May 20 at 2:00 pm

Join Sheldon Munn as we continue to honor the 150th anniversary of the Civil War by delving into the life of Major-General John White Geary. Truly a quintessential man and probably one of the most romantic figures in Pennsylvania history, he was also twice PA's Governor. He was large, over 6 feet, 5 inches tall, weighing 250 pounds, and one of the most bewhiskered gentlemen around. Join us as Mr. Munn brings us deeper into the Major-General's fascinating life story. No registration necessary.

Foreign Film Fridays: Call for title

Friday, May 25 at 7:00 pm

FROM FRANCE: François is a gently ruthless antique trader who will do nearly anything to make a deal. When his business partner throws him a birthday party, someone points out that all the guests are business associates, not friends. François protests and is talked into making a deal to produce his best friend within ten days. He agrees to the challenge, but soon begins to realize he really doesn't have any friends. François soon meets a gregarious taxi driver who has a way of making people like him. Eager to win his bet, François hires Bruno to give him a crash course in making friends and influencing people. Rated PG-13. No registration necessary.
