It Might Get Loud - Guitar Clinic

Saturday, September 7
at 2:00 pm

In need of some rock inspiration? Why not hang out with your friends while we screen the 2008 documentary It Might Get Loud. Rarely can a film penetrate the glamorous surface of rock legends. It Might Get Loud tells the personal stories, in their own words, of three generations of electric guitar virtuosos The Edge (U2), Jimmy Page (Led Zeppelin), and Jack White (The White Stripes). It reveals how each developed his unique sound and style of playing favorite instruments, guitars both found and invented. Guitar out of tune? Stick around after the movie and our experts will teach you to get the best sound from your axe. Snacks and drinks provided by the Friends of the Library. For grades 9 through 12 with registration starting August 24.

Homework Helpers

Thursdays - October 3 through May 8
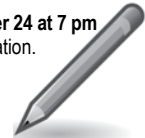

3:30 pm - 4:30 pm
October through May, experienced teachers will be in the Library's Lower Lobby to offer individualized tutoring, help with research and report writing, and/or test review for students in grades 1-5.
Students, accompanied by at least one parent, should come to the Library prepared with their homework information, relevant textbooks, worksheets, directions, and supplies. Parents must stay in the Library during the session and are welcome to consult with the tutor at the end of the session.
This year's list of six experienced teachers include a specialist in ESL (English as a second language). No registration required.

Holiday Story times - 6-week sessions

November 11 through December 7
Join us at these age appropriate programs that promote literacy and provide a fun first experience at the library. These story times will help increase children's vocabulary, comprehension and ability to interact socially. Sessions are as follows:

Just Baby & Me - Ages 0-2 with an adult, rhymes, songs and board books
Twos - Songs, rhymes and easy books for children age two with an adult.
Threes - Stories, songs and fingerplays for three year olds with an adult.

Picture Book Time - Children old enough to sit by themselves for 30-45 minutes will listen to age appropriate stories, songs, and fingerplays.
Registration is required and begins Oct. 28 for Just Baby & Me, Oct. 29 for Twos, Threes and Picture Book Time.
