

FRIENDS of the East Pennsboro Library

The purpose of the Friends of the East Pennsboro Library is to focus public attention on library services, facilities and needs, to encourage donations, gifts, endowments and bequests to the East Pennsboro Branch Library, thereby stimulating increased usage and enhancement of Library services and resources, thus enriching the lives of the local community.

Friends of the East Pennsboro Library

The Friends of the East Pennsboro Library help support the East Pennsboro Branch Library by raising funds, recruiting volunteers, and advocating for library needs.

The Friends board works with the Library to determine needs and help fund and staff critical projects. Friends also provide support and recognition for the many library volunteers.

You can become a Friend of the East Pennsboro Library by making a tax deductible contribution.

Look inside this brochure for more information. You can also visit the library's website at
