What's New at East Pennsboro Branch Library?

Jackie Barton – East Pennsboro Branch Director

We had a great summer of reading!

Thanks to all participants and thank you to the Friends of East Pennsboro Library for sponsoring our Children's Summer Reading Program and to the Hall Foundation for sponsoring our brand new teen and adult summer reading program. Thanks also to our generous local businesses who donated our weekly incentive prizes.

This fall, Mrs. B will be back for story time on Tuesday mornings, and of course we'll still have drop-in story times on Wednesday mornings. Every Friday morning, preschoolers can enjoy a fun activity with our new Preschool Pals program – crafts, scavenger hunts, puzzles, and building block parties! Families can join us for Bingo for Books once a month or for a pop-in movie once a week. Homework Helpers resumes in October with retired teachers who will be available by appointment to help with school work.

Teens can join us for three new programs in the fall, including a craft and a selfie scavenger hunt. We're most excited about playing a new game, Bring Your Own Book. If you've enjoyed playing Apples to Apples, you'll love this game, too. And like the title says, be sure to bring your own book!

Speaking of books, our adult book group will be reading titles recommended by Library Reads (libraryreads.org). The adult writing group will focus on composing thank-you notes as we get closer to the Thanksgiving season. We'll also have "Make Something Out of Nothing," a monthly craft series for teens and adults. Our Chix with Sticks group is always coming up with new, interesting projects. For movie buffs, on the first Friday of the month, we'll be showing classic films.

Look for our booth at Pumpkinfest at Adams-Ricci Park in October. And stay tuned for details about our move to the ground floor! We will update you as information becomes available.

Like us on Facebook and visit our website at eastpennsborobranh.org for the latest activities and news.

Friends of the East Pennsboro Library

Look for the Friends huge book sale at this year's Pennsboro Pumpkin Fest. Great books - something for everyone - at great prices. Once again we've partnered with Road Hawg Barbeque.....our biggest supporter. Each year Road Hawg donates a portion of their proceeds to our Friends group! Please be sure to stop by the Road Hawg stand and have one of the best pork barbeque sandwiches, ever! Thank you to Studio 91, who will be dancing again at the Pumpkin Fest. Not only will they be entertaining us all, but they have sponsored one of the Friends four spaces. Your continued support is appreciated.

As always, hundreds of children enjoyed lots of great books, prizes and summer programs sponsored by the Friends! Thanks to a wonderful community for donating books and supporting the book sales. Your donations and purchases help to assure that these wonderful programs continue to entertain the children year after year.

A big thank you to the East Pennsboro Township Commissioners, Manager, employees and volunteers for all you do to support the library and Friends. Your commitment is priceless.

Homework Helpers

Thursdays by appointment, 4 pm to 5 pm
October through April 2017

For students in grades 1 through 5. The volunteer helpers are experienced educators ready to help with all subject areas. Students are responsible to bring all textbooks, homework, instructions and related materials. A parent/caregiver must remain in the library during the instruction. There is no charge for this program. Sessions are held at the East Pennsboro Branch by appointment. Please call the librarian there to make arrangements. Please call the library or Diane Myers, 717-761-3730, if you have any questions.

Check our website at www.eastpennsborobranh.org for all upcoming events and activities.
