Library Reads

Thursday, December 6 at 6:30 pm

Registration required

Join us for a discussion of the Library Reads recommended book Beartown by Fredrik Backman. From kirkusreviews.com: "This is about more than youth sports; it's part coming-of-age novel, part study of moral failure, and finally a chronicle of group think in which an unlikely hero steps forward to save more than one person from self-destruction." Please either have read the book or listened to the audiobook before the meeting.

Land That Job!

Fridays December 7 through February 22 from 1:30 to 3:30 pm

Applying for jobs or education programs? Need help getting started? Need help uploading documents to an online application? Need to revise a resume, CV, or cover letter? Every Friday afternoon from 1:30 to 3:30 pm, we can help with online job, school, scholarship and other applications. Our staff can assist with specific job and school applications and show you how to use the library's databases and links to take steps for job and career-related preparation, including resume and cover letter design, specialized exam preparation and more. No registration necessary. Wi-Fi is free to connect with your own device, or bring your library card or photo ID to use our Internet computers.
