

The John Graham Library plans to reopen its building to the public with limitations on June 25th.

- Occupancy will be limited to maintain social distancing. Please follow all signs and floor markers.
- Computer availability will be limited. If you're planning to use an Internet computer, we recommend calling ahead to make sure one is available.
- Our contact-free holds pickup service will continue for those who prefer it.
- Please return all items in the Book Drop on the front porch. Returned items will be held for 3 days before being checked in. The delay will not cause any fines.
- All programs are virtual at this time. For more details, see
  - www.johngrahamlibrary.org
  - <https://www.facebook.com/John.Graham.Library>
- Photocopying and faxing services are not available at this time.

Please do not come to the library if:

- You have come into contact with someone who was known or suspected to have COVID-19 within the past 2 weeks (14 days).
- Your temperature is 100.4 degrees Fahrenheit or higher
- You are experiencing any of the symptoms of COVID-19 (see <https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/symptoms-testing/symptoms.html>)

When You Visit

- Wear a mask or face covering inside the building (unless exempt because of a medical condition).
- Maintain social distancing of 6 feet.
- Hand sanitizer stations are situated throughout the building.
