Bricks

General Notes

With note cards: "Bricks manufactured at the New Cumberland Brick yard. Located below where Hillside Elementary School now stands. Donated by James and Alice E. Lee"

"April 18, 1888 – The 'Observer' a local newspaper told of outstanding clay deposits in the area west of Brandt Ave. and north of Fifth St. and mentioned that New Cumberland was to have a brick company. In July of 1888 a boiler and engine arrived and H. D. Kohler was ready to produce brick.

1910 – Company expanded and became 'Leiby and Fleurie'.

1917 – New Cumberland Brick Co. chartered. They purchased the 'Leiby and Fleurie' business for $9,500 plus other obligations.

June 21, 1927 – Brick business slowed down and the concern closed." [sic]
