Friends of the Joseph T. Simpson Public Library

 Join the Friends of the Joseph T. Simpson Public Library today!

 Join those who share your passion for books, reading, and literacy.

WHO WE ARE

Since 1980, the Friends of the Joseph T. Simpson Public Library have supported the library with fundraising activities, participation in community activities and library programs, and advocacy for quality library service.

WHAT WE DO

SPONSOR programs and events for all ages.

PROVIDE free Wi-Fi access to library visitors.

PROMOTE reading and literacy.

OPERATE BOOKS BY THE GROSS at 400 Cheryl Avenue, Mechanicsburg, where thousands of books are donated annually by the community, for the Friends book sales in February, June and October.

DEMONSTRATE community support for our library.

STRENGTHEN library by providing materials and services beyond what the regular library budget can provide.

RAISE awareness and appreciation of the library's resources and services.

OUR MISSION

To provide financial support and to promote the library.

OUR VISION

To enhance the resources and services of the Simpson Public Library through fundraising, advocacy, education, and community outreach.

HOW YOU BENEFIT

Friends of the Library gain satisfaction from supporting the library. Friendships develop as members attend Friends of the Library events, help with Friends volunteer activities, and spend time with others who love books and reading.

Your membership enables you to attend book sale preview events for first access to thousands of books. Preview nights are held the evening prior to the book sales and a limited number of items per membership can be purchased at preview night.

Be a Friend! Get Involved!

Yes, I would like to volunteer:

- Sorting books prior to the Book Sale
- Helping the day of the Book Sale
