
WHO WE ARE

Since 1980, the Friends of the Joseph T. Simpson Public Library have supported the library with fundraising activities, participation in community activities and library programs, and advocacy for quality library service.

WHAT WE DO

SPONSOR programs and events for all ages

PROMOTE reading and literacy

SPONSOR book sales

STRENGTHEN our library by providing materials and services beyond what the regular library budget can provide

OUR MISSION IS

The Friends of the Joseph T. Simpson Public Library will enhance the resources and services of the library through fundraising, advocacy, education, and community outreach.

OUR VISION IS

A thriving and sustainable library that is accessible to all.

HOW YOU BENEFIT

Friends of the Library gain satisfaction from supporting the library.

Your membership enables you to attend book sale preview events for first access to thousands of books. Preview nights are held the evening prior to the book sales and a limited number of items per membership can be purchased at preview night.

Be a FRIEND! Get Involved!
